

Exactly What I Needed as a First Time Landlord

Sara - Landlord

Shakil has been an absolute pleasure to work with. As a first time landlord, I went for the fully managed service because I didn't want the stress of dealing with the property myself, and he has honestly made the whole process so much less scary. It was exactly what I needed.

From the very beginning he went above and beyond to make things stress free. He's always available, genuinely cares, and even helps out with things that aren't technically his job just because he wants to make life easier.

He's friendly, trustworthy, and really knows what he's doing. Shakil even saved me money along the way and managed to find me a tenant in just 10 days, with 6 offers and 30 viewings.

I honestly couldn't recommend him enough, if you're looking for an agent who truly has your back, Shakil is the one.

Less Hassle & More Control

Anne - Landlord

I've been a landlord for a few years and always self managed my small portfolio. Recently it had started to become stressful so I looked for a local managing agent to take over.

I spoke with a few agents but Roger and Tracy at Let Correct listened to me the most and I felt reassured by them and their management systems. They helped me get all my compliance documents in order which took a huge weight off my shoulders. They also found me some good new long-term tenants for one of my properties and set up their tenancy documentation quickly.

I'm glad I trusted them to take over my properties as I now have a lot less hassle and feel back in control again. I probably should have done it sooner as it all went very smoothly and was very easy for me.

Having had Let Correct Watford manage my property for a year, I have valued most the care they've put into looking after it. In a recent conversation with Shakil, I told him that it is like he is managing my property exclusively; that is how dedicated the service feels. He has made it a priority to know the ins and outs of the property and attends to any issue that occurs personally.

In a market dominated by big corporations, an independent company that provides genuine personal care is a rare find.

Let Correct and Liam are the dream team for landlords. They make the whole process efficient and stress-free.

This is the first time we have used a letting agent and just have to say that Max at Let Correct Shrewsbury is amazing ! Having made the appointment to see our property Max and Alice turned up exactly on time. They were smartly dressed and dealt with our needs in a friendly and professional manner. Nothing was too much trouble and all our concerns were dealt with in a most reassuring way. After 84 initial enquiries many of which were sifted out by Max, we settled on who is turning out to be an excellent tenant.

We cannot thank Max enough for the excellent job he has done for us and would HIGHLY recommend the team at Let Correct Shrewsbury.

I just wanted to take a moment to express my heartfelt thanks to Roger and Tracy at Let Correct Worthing. From the very beginning, they went above and beyond to make our experience as smooth and stress-free as possible. They listened carefully to everything we said, always mindful any needs and concerns, which truly made us feel valued as clients.

Both Roger and Tracy were incredibly kind and patient, offering support at every step. They made sure that I was always informed, and I never had to chase anything up. They were in constant communication with my new landlord, ensuring that every little detail was taken care of promptly and professionally.

We feel very lucky have come across dedicated and caring professionals. Their level of service is unmatched, and we are beyond grateful for all the help they've given us. Thank you, Roger and Tracy, for making this whole process a positive and memorable one. We cannot recommend them enough!

I had a fantastic experience working with this company renting out my house, and I'd especially like to highlight Christina's exceptional work. From the start, she was incredibly efficient, professional, and always helpful. Christina is a true team player who goes above and beyond — she handled everything with care and responsibility.

She did a thorough market analysis, which helped us set the right price, and she found great tenants for us very quickly. Her attention to detail and strong communication made the whole process smooth and stress-free. I truly appreciate her dedication and would highly recommend her and the team to anyone looking to rent out their property.

We moved one of our properties to Let Correct Watford after speaking to Shaqil. His manner confidence and reassurance about the dedication he would devote to our properties was impressive. He has truly proven that he can be relied upon and that we had made the right decision with the move. His dealings with a complex situation have been so exemplary that we moved another property over.

Would highly recommend to any landlords looking to move.
